STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE REPORT

Mr. Castiglione and Mr. Larabee reported from the High School a Congratulations to Michaela DiCocco and Jacob Sawyer whose artwork has been selected for the 25th Annual High School Regional Juried Exhibition! Their artwork will be on display at Sage College's Opalka's Gallery through April 13th! The music department is heading to NYSSMA Majors once again in April, with the Concert Band and Wind Ensemble participating on April 15th and the Chorus and Concert Choir on April 16th. Good luck to our music students! Mrs. Ryder brought her last participation in government class to the NY capital this past Friday March 22nd, where students went on a guided tour of both legislative houses, along with the state museum and the Corning tower. Assemblyman Angelo Santabarbara also presented a proclamation from the assembly to recognize Mrs. Ryder's service to the Schalmont and Capital Region community. Congrats Mrs. Ryder! The English Honor Society is traveling once again to Jefferson to read to the students in honor of their launch of the free book library! The Concert Choir and Wind Ensemble are traveling to NYC on Thursday, March 28th to see the Broadway musical, Six, and go on a guided tour of Lincoln Center! The Middle School and Jefferson Elementary students are again raising money and awareness for Ronald McDonald House of Albany by reading in March! Schalmont Middle School's Student Council kicked off their fundraising efforts by encouraging students to participate. Their challenge also includes opportunities to run and write as well as read to raise money. Jefferson continues to celebrate March Madness by selecting their favorite books which are read by Jefferson staff members. Jefferson students and staff have also participated in hat day, mismatch day, and patriotic day this month. A group of Middle School student leaders recently visited Jefferson to work with first grade students in Miss Pink and Mrs. LeRoy's classes. The students made sensory jars, which demonstrated how feelings can get mixed up, yet settle down. In addition, the students also made wreath crafts, which will later be delivered to a local assisted living facility. Mrs. Mankuski's kindergarten class recently celebrated agricultural week by welcoming personnel from the NYS Department of Agricultural Markets and Cornell Cooperative Extension. The students learned about strawberries and even had some for a tasty treat. Mrs. Madej's kindergarten class was recently visited by Shelby Wimmet-Himmelrick of Hop on Home Rabbit Sanctuary. Mrs. Himmelrick visited the classroom and taught the students about bunnies. She also brought along her furry friends to accompany her presentation! Jefferson will host a Kindergarten orientation for parents on Wednesday, April 10 at 6:00 PM within the play area.
